SUMMARY

Experienced MERN Stack Developer Ready to Make an Impact
As a highly motivated professional with two+ years of experience in the MERN stack, I specialize in React.js, Node.js, and Next.js. My skills extend to various technologies such as Laravel, PHP, CSS, JavaScript, C, C++, and HTML. Thanks to my numerous successful LeetCode challenges, I have honed my problem-solving abilities. I am eager to apply my diverse skills to drive innovative projects. With a solid foundation in both front-end and back-end technologies, as well as a track record of delivering top-notch work, I am well-equipped to excel in dynamic development environments.
